

NANCY J. HAYDEN

Fiction, Memoir, Nonfiction

3727 VT RT 15, Jeffersonville, VT 05464, (802) 644-8332

Email: nancynorthwindarts@gmail.com,

Website: www.nancyjhayden.com

EDUCATION

- 2012 M.F.A. Creative Writing, Stonecoast MFA Program, University of S. Maine.
2008 B.A. English, B.A. Studio Art, (Double Major) University of Vermont.
1992 Ph.D. Environmental Engineering, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI.
1987 M.S. Environmental Engineering, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI.
1980 B.S. Forest Biology. SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry, NY.

RECENT NONFICTION

- “Vermont Apples: Lost and Found” Local Banquet, Fall, 2016.
“Home for Supper: Remembering Lewis Hill.” Local Banquet, April, 2016
“Aronia and Elderberry; Thy Medicine,” Local Banquet, September, 2015.
“Fruit Farmers Doing Pollinator Crop Studies,” Stowe Reporter, March 5, 2015.
“Cow Pies and Apple Pies,” On Pasture, February 16, 2015.
“Rhubarb Cobbler,” Tasteful Traditions; A Collection of Cambridge History, Memories, and Family Recipes, Cambridge Historical Society, Editors, Justin Marsh and Tamra Higgins, Red Barn Books, Shelburne, VT. 2014.
“The State of the Bees,” Local Banquet, Winter, 2014.
“Farm-Ecology,” Local Banquet, Summer, 2014.
“Homemade Cheese,” Vermont; Land, Lives, and Food. Vermont Slow Foods Special Publication. February 2014.
“One Kiss, One Man to Save it For,” in Enosburg Community Arts Project book. Editors, T. Fulwiler and N. Patch, Artist in Residence, Enosburg, VT. 2010.
“Silk Stockings and Cotton Sox,” in Enosburg Community Arts Project book. Editors, Toby Fulwiler and Nancy Patch, Artist in Residence, Enosburg, VT. 2010.
“Growing Gardens for Healthy Students,” in Enosburg Community Arts Project book. Editors, Toby Fulwiler and Nancy Patch, Artist in Residence, Enosburg, VT. 2010.
“Why We Do What We Do,” in The Mountain Ear Magazine. Issue 6. Pg 5. August 2010. With J. Hayden.

RECENT FICTION

- “If You Will,” in Polterguests; Stories & Poems, An Anthology from Main Street Rag. Ed. Jane Andrews, Nov. 2016.
“Ghost Dog,” Creepy Campfire Quarterly. Ed. Jennifer Word. April, 2016.
“Coffee Break on the Western Front, 1918,” in Storm Cycle 2014: The Best of Kind of a Hurricane Press, 2015.
“No Man’s Land,” Enter at Your Own Risk: Dreamscapes into Darkness, Firbolg Publishing, April 2015.
“Unknown Soldier,” Kneeling in the Silver Light: Stories from the Great War. Horror/Dark Fantasy Anthology, Alchemy Press, 2014.

- “Coffee Break on the Western Front, 1918,” Something’s Brewing Anthology, Kind of a Hurricane Press, 2014.
- “The Leviathan,” Stonecoast Lines. Stonecoast MFA Publication, University of Southern Maine. Summer 2012.
- “The Pipe,” Twist of Noir online magazine, July 2010.
- The Long Exhale*, self-published novel, 2010.
- “UVM Circus,” Cartoon, The Vermont Cynic, The University of Vermont’s Independent Voice since 1883. 2009.

OTHER RELATED ACTIVITIES

- Co-editor, Stonecoast Lines, Summer 2012.
- Reading: Celebration of Expressive Arts, 2011. Montgomery, VT.
- Developed and taught 16 environmental and engineering university-level courses (1987-2013)
- Supervised over 70 service-learning community projects in engineering courses (1992-2013)
- Outstanding Service-Learning Faculty Award at UVM (2007)
- Aldo Leopold Environmental Leadership Fellow (2005)
- Published over 100 scholarly papers, book chapters, and abstracts (1987-2013)
- Awarded over a million dollars in education grants and over $2 million in environmental restoration research (1992-2013).
- Registered Professional Engineer, State of Vermont (1996-present)

POSITIONS

- 1992-present Co-owner of The Farm Between an organic fruit farm and nursery in Jeffersonville.
- 2007-present Co-founder and Board Member of Seeds of Self Reliance, a non-profit organization focusing on ecological literacy and helping to build community and self-sufficiency through gardening.
- 1991-2013 Assistant and Associate Professor, Civil and Environmental Engineering, University of Vermont. Teaching, research, service, and community outreach in environmental restoration, water, wastewater and stormwater treatment, education and women in engineering issues.
- 2007-2012 Program Head for Civil Engineering, University of Vermont (UVM).
- 2003-2012 Program Head for Environmental Engineering, (UVM).
- 1996-2004 Graduate Program Coordinator, Civil and Environmental Engineering, UVM.
- 1993-2005 Environmental Consultant dealing with environmental restoration.
- 1985-1991 Research Assistant, Environmental Engineering, Michigan State University.
- 1985 Environmental Intern, General Motors Corporation, Lansing, Michigan.
- 1980-1982 Peace Corps Volunteer, Kenya, Africa. Worked with local communities in the design, construction and renovation of fish ponds. Assisted new fish farmers in obtaining supplies, fingerlings, and their initial set up.